

TRUST METHODS ALLEGED IN SUIT

Action of Ware-Kramer Co. Against American Tobacco Company Being Heard.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Raleigh, N. C., June 13.—The hearing of the damage suit by the Ware-Kramer Tobacco Company against the American Tobacco Company for alleged trust methods of driving the plaintiff out of business as a competitor in the cigarette business was fully launched today.

The jury was installed, and numbers of depositions of non-resident witnesses for the plaintiff were read. Tomorrow depositions of the American Tobacco Company officers will be taken.

The complaint and answer were read by sections alternately. The complaint sets out a series of acts on the part of the American Tobacco Company to destroy the plaintiff as a competitor.

The American Tobacco Company sets up a general denial of the charges and alleges further that the Ware-Kramer Company was guilty of acts of blarney and unfair methods in furthering trade and slandering the defendant company.

The American Tobacco Company charges the Ware-Kramer Company with committing acts of blarney and unfair methods in furthering trade and slandering the defendant company.

Each of these set out personal experiences and observations of the American Tobacco Company methods of stifling independent trade and competition, especially through coupons, free goods and other methods.

Through special concessions to some special dealer in a city through whom the trade must ultimately come to be supplied. The Norfolk affiants set out the Old Dominion Tobacco Company, which has been in the market since 1880, and the Washington affiants that the tobacco trade passed through favor of the trust to Davis & Decher, of that city.

Tomorrow there will be read to the court and jury depositions taken by the plaintiff's counsel from officers of the American Tobacco Company. It is conceded that the trial will require three or four weeks.

GREAT ROW RAISED BY VOLUNTEERS

Demand Their Pay, and Police Are Called to Quell Near-Riot.

Mexico, City, June 13.—Soldiers who distinguished themselves in futile defense of Juarez, to-day raised such a row over their alleged grievances, that mounted police and a detachment of "zapadores" had to disperse them and their supporters. No shots were fired. They were not regulars, but a band of volunteers who fought under General Navarro. Following the surrender of Juarez, they were made prisoners also, and they accompanied the old general and his regulars to the capital, instead of going to the barracks last night, these undisciplined men spent the night drinking. This morning, joining the regulars in the barracks, they demanded that they be paid off as the insurgents.

The men began to shout aloud their grievances. Outside the barracks, a crowd of persons gathered and added their hoos and jeers to the din made by the volunteers.

Advices received at police headquarters resulted in the dispatching of mounted police to handle the mob outside the barracks. The volunteers declared they did not purpose to serve under a general who had been defeated, and that their services were not wanted, and a few minutes later they became part of the street crowd. The police dispersed the mob without shooting. To-day announcement was made that the volunteers who persisted in too exuberant celebrations will be deemed guilty of disorderly conduct. Francisco I. Madero, Jr., has agreed that the time for demonstrations has passed.

Manuel Bonilla, a Sinaloa newspaper editor, appointed director of the Department of Communications, today was installed as a member of the de la Barra Cabinet.

That General Navarro will answer before a court of inquiry why he surrendered Juarez was confirmed to-day.

Prisoners Released.
Washington, D. C., June 13.—The Americans prisoners captured by the Mexicans at the battle of Casas Grandes, March 6, who were released from prison in Chihuahua, today are R. C. Beck, of Mount Pleasant, Pa.; William Currier, Erie, Oklahoma; A. A. Franks, Santa Anna, Cal.; F. A. Fowler, North Worth, Tex.; J. W. Graham, Kansas City, Mo.; J. H. Harrison, Transworth, Menon, Cal.; B. D. Hemenway, Fort Wayne, Ind.; William Huggard, New York City; Bruce R. Jacoby, Minneapolis, Minn.; J. H. Jones, Duluth, Minn.; R. C. Lee, Washington, Mo.; Floyd A. Martin, Denver, Col.; J. H. French, San Francisco, Cal.; and Sidney Severns, New York City.

The State Department had been watching over the welfare of the prisoners and as soon as the peace pact was signed, the American consul at Chihuahua was instructed to request that they be set at liberty.

Military Comedy Continues.
Chihuahua, Mexico, June 13.—Mexico's post-revolution military comedy continued to-day. Four thousand Federal troops, commanded by three generals, are patrolling the streets, determined to keep order.

BOMBS EXPLODED IN TWO CITIES

New York, June 13.—Two hundred Greeks in a five-story tenement on East Eleventh Street were routed from their beds and driven in panic to the street early to-day by a bomb explosion in the grocery store of Frank Zivello, on the ground floor. The explosion shattered the walls of the building, but did not harm any of the tenants.

Zivello admitted to the police that he had been paying blackmail in small sums to Black Hand men for three years. Recently, he said, he determined to ignore the letters, and Sunday night a bomb was set in front of his store, but went out before it exploded.

Similar Outrage in Chicago.
Chicago, June 13.—Two bombs were exploded simultaneously early to-day in the South Side, within four blocks of one another. Each bomb exploded in a saloon owned by an Italian, and the police believe they were set off by members of the Black Hand in a blackmailing scheme.

Windows were broken for many blocks around, and several persons were slightly injured.

PLAN FOR SUBWAYS IS MADE PUBLIC

New York, June 13.—Five months of conferences and controversy over new subways in Greater New York came to a head to-day in a plan which Mayor Gaynor declared is "the largest matter before any government in the world, national, State or local, so far as I know, at the present time."

The magnitude of the project is made most emphatic in dollar figures, which will be expended if the entire program is carried out, or more than three times the amount spent on the present subway system.

The plan, which was submitted to the Board of Estimate to-day, proposes a compromise by which both the Interborough Rapid Transit Company, which operates the present subway, and the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company, which has control of most of the lines in Brooklyn, must make concessions to the city. The Interborough must have to permit the Brooklyn company's invasion of Manhattan, and the Brooklyn company will have to give New Yorkers a 5-cent fare to the great pleasure grounds at Coney Island.

It is estimated that the companies may not accept, but the city either corporation refuse, all the favors proposed to the opposition, according to the plan. The total outlay called for by the plans is: By the city, $181,200,000; by the Interborough, $75,800,000; by the Brooklyn company, $50,400,000; total, $257,400,000.

In the far and distant graveyard, When the flowers gently wave, Lies the one we loved so dearly, In the cold and silent grave.

Their loving places I held so dear, Their voices I loved are still near. Two places are vacant in our home, Which never can be filled.

Still held in loving memory, Of those who loved them dear; And when miles are sad and lonely, Thy presence seems still near.

It's hard to break the tender cord, When love has bound the heart; It is hard, so hard, to speak the words, We must forever part.

From sorrow, toll and pain, And sin and sickness they are free, And perfect love and friendship reign, Through all eternity.
